ABOUT IWFT

The International Wedding & Film Tourism event is a unique showcase that highlights three significant aspects of tourism:

Destinations: The event features various international destinations that are ideal for weddings, offering breathtaking locations for couples to consider for their special day.

Wedding Tourism: It focuses on promoting wedding tourism, encouraging couples to explore exotic locations and create unforgettable memories for their wedding ceremonies.

Film Tourism: The event also emphasizes famous film locations that double as potential wedding destinations, providing an opportunity for couples to incorporate cinematic elements into their weddings.

By combining these three elements into a single event, attendees will have a remarkable chance to discover international wedding destinations featured in renowned films, making their clients' special day even more enchanting.

The International Wedding & Film Tourism will serve as a pivotal platform for networking, fostering business collaborations, and boosting tourism in both the wedding and film industries.

With an intricately curated three-days agenda, the event is built upon extensive research and valuable industry insights. The sessions at IWFT aim to identify industry-defining trends and address pressing challenges faced by the sector.

IWFT 2023 will offer an exclusive platform for face-to-face meetings between Wedding Planners (Buyers) and the Hospitality Industry (Sellers). It follows a table-top show format, where 25 Sellers will be connected with an equal ratio of Buyers each day. These one-on-one meetings will be thoughtfully arranged with selective, handpicked, and pre-vetted Wedding Planners from Pan India, ensuring their buying capacity for bulk business is maximized over the three days.
